"During the months of July and August Spahr lived with me," she said. "He kept telling me that he had come to New York to make his money and that he would take me with him when he came back to New Brunswick."

The boy said he took the money because he wanted to see something of the world and have a good time. He didn't like to travel alone, he said, and invited his friend Wallace Carlock, a clerk in a Williamsburg grocery store, to go along with him.

The elder Trautz went to Jersey City to see Lieut. Wickham of the Harlem detective bureau to prevent the Jersey City police from puzzling their heads further over the case of the runaway.

HOW TO KEEP A SERVANT.

Montclair Woman Who Has Had the Same One 35 Years Explains.

MONTCLAIR, N. J., Sept. 3. Mrs. Enott Seward, of 80 Grove street, who has had one servant, Maria T. Mermer, for a period of thirty-five years, and five months to-day gave the "square deal" as the formula for keeping servants.

"I have always accorded Maria kindness and consideration," said Mrs. Seward. "I do not interfere with her system of conducting the kitchen affairs so long as good results are achieved. I may think that my way of accomplishing a task is the right way, but if the servant has another method that brings about the desired result, I am satisfied. I do not believe in imposing hard and fast rules for the conduct of household affairs."

"In the matter of the servant's table, I have found that a good plan is to adopt a liberal policy. The experience of my neighbors who have endeavored to limit the money of the servants have shown me the folly of attempting to deprive them of the things which are necessary to their well-being. A servant has more respect for a liberal mistress than for one who is parsimonious, and it is a great advantage for the mistress to be generous to her help."

STRAINING AT GNATS.

Martin, Ind., Tormented for an Hour and a Half by Clouds of Gnats.

MARTIN, Ind., Sept. 3. Millions of gnats, many of them half as large as house flies, swarmed through the streets here last evening and no one could venture out doors without being pestered by them.

Pedestrians fought in vain to keep the gnats from their faces. They fairly breathed gnats. Most people sought their homes hurriedly and made sure that screens were tightly fitted to doors and windows.

The gnats invaded the town about 5.30 o'clock and stayed until 7. After that the gnats were not so plentiful.

HALIFAX CATHEDRAL OPENED.

Great Gathering of Anglican Clergymen at Canada Church Congress.

HALIFAX, N. S., Sept. 3. The new Anglican cathedral for the diocese of Nova Scotia was opened in this city with an impressive religious ceremony today. A great gathering of clergymen from Great Britain, the United States and Canada assembled not only for the dedication of All Saints' Cathedral but also to attend a church congress for clergymen and to participate in the bi-centenary celebration of the first church of England service in Canada, which has been continuous since.

Bishop Frederick Courtney preached the opening sermon and a thank offering was taken up amounting to $10,000, said to be the largest sum ever collected in this way at an Anglican service in Canada.

A luncheon was subsequently held at which one of the speakers was the Bishop of London, who aroused much enthusiasm as he spoke of the qualities of the late King and of the courage and devotion of the present ruler of England.

A civic reception took place this afternoon and to-night services were again held in the new cathedral. The Bishop of London will preach in the cathedral to-morrow morning and at St. Paul's Church the sermon will be by the Bishop of Glasgow, while all the Anglican pulpits of the city will be filled by American and British bishops.
